ANNOUNCEMENT.
For Circuit Court Clerk.
We are authorized to announce James L. Conner as a candidate for Circuit Clerk of Bath county, to be elected at the election of the Democratic party, Election, November, 1902.

We are authorized to announce James J. Mark as a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Bath county, to be elected at the election of the Democratic party, Election, November, 1902.

The famous Lexington Democratic primary developed at the end into a genuine low-down and again demonstrated that it is the unexpected that happens.

Massachusetts wants the tariff on coal suspended because it thinks Massachusetts, Massachusetts gets about what she wants in the way of tariff legislation.

Ex-Presidents of the Springfield state of late through persons who have a ship, that is, a vessel of unprofitable color.

James H. Smith, of the Lowell, asked by the President of the Massachusetts Democratic State primary. An appeal was granted. Still, the disappointed people seem to have party law their side.

A great hubbub has been created by the President of the United States by a large assembly, because a certain element object to the colored president and make threats that caused her to resign her position.

The Philippines so far have not been a very good thing for the United States by a large assembly, and President Roosevelt is trying to relieve crying distress there, much for one phase of imperialism.

This cold snap has caused intense suffering and increased mortality in the northern cities where cold is scarcely to be had, and an enormous price. Perhaps both employers and strikers are really responsible for this wretched state of affairs.

Andrew Calkins said last week that he had given 7300 library buildings and had applications for 800 more under consideration, the great majority of which will not be given. He has offered $100,000 for the purpose.

Mr. C. H. Over of Montgomery Co. is visiting relatives here this week. Nathaniel Markland bought Mrs. Bradbury's restaurant in Ovington last week.

Miss Berle Kerr returned home Friday after a week's visit with relatives on Flat Rock.

Mr. S. Hamilton sent a letter of land adjoining the Tawson farm to Alameda St. for $3500.

James Shroot, of near Sharpsburg, visited his mother, Mrs. Nancy Shroot, Sunday night.

Mrs. Jennie Hamilton was with her daughter, Mrs. Fannie Doyle, on lower Prickly Ash, who is very sick with typhoid fever.

R. L. Stone and wife went to Carlisle last week to attend the funeral of the former's sister, Miss Emma Clay Stone.

Mrs. Frances Hamilton sold a tract of land of 232 acres belonging to James F. Hamilton, deceased, to W. A. Lyter and wife for $10,025.

Granite City.
S. R. Newman remains poorly.

Doone Lyman visited relatives in Bath Co. last week.

Born, Jan. 6th, to John Bawling and wife (see Fannie Bean) a boy.

Miss Lizzie Phelps came home Friday after a several weeks' visit to relatives at Lexington.

Sam Walton and wife have gone to make their home with Thomas Walton, near Poplar Ridge.

David Jan. 7th, 1902, Mrs. Mattie D. Turner, near here, of typhoid pneumonia. Deceased was 72 years old, and although a stranger to the writer she leaves a strong impression of dying, was ready and willing to go to that better world, where there are no more sorrow and partings, and this is a great comfort to the loved ones who are left behind.

They to also trust in Him who is ever ready to cheer and comfort the grieving ones that they may share in the glory of our Father.

Miss Lila Smith visited Miss. H. and Mr. Porter Monday night and Tuesday.

Sam Higgett, who has been sick several days, was moved to his home in Bath on Tuesday.

Frank and John Turner were called to Cincinnati Saturday to the bedside of their sister, who is very low.

Crooks.
Miss Ada Wells is on the sick list.

Joe Williams is laid up with a very sore leg.

E. Palmer, of Wyoming, was here Friday.

Norman Horton is attending school at Ovington.

James H. Smith was at Lexington Tuesday week.

W. A. Lyter and wife have had a cold and headache shipped a carload of goods to Jersey City Wednesday.

George Nixon visited his sister, Mrs. J. H. Hendrix, near Sherburne, last week.

Very few from here attended Court in Ovington Monday, owing to the cold weather.

John L. Jackson, of Olympia, was here Monday to see his sister, Mrs. Joe Williams, who is quite sick.

George Barnes returned last week from Indian Territory. He is very much pleased with that country.

Sherburne.
T. B. Reid and a pair of mares were driven to Bath last week.

Gudgud Bros. of this place sold a pair of horses, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Pawlathin attended at progressive euchre Friday night.

S. W. Evans has sold out his shipment of canned coal (1,000 bu.) to the schoolmaster.

M. W. Evans has been sick for several days; no better at this writing.

J. C. Hardeman, of Sweet, has been in the city of general merchandise to Young Irving, of Nicholas Co.

Mr. Charles Anderson, of this place, and his family, have been in the city of general merchandise to Young Irving, of Nicholas Co.
